National Update

- Surprise billing has taken the stage over the past few months. The No Surprises Act has passed Congress. There has been much discussion surrounding the Interim Final Rule Part II. Advocacy efforts have focused on reinforcing Congressional intent in passing the original bill and preventing use of the median in-network rate from artificially lowering rates by driving providers out of network. There is not currently a Delaware state law that would pre-empt the No Surprises Act.
- A significant (approximately 10%) cut to Medicare reimbursement rates is scheduled for the end of the year and will take Congressional action to avoid. Rep. Blunt Rochester did sign on to a letter urging Congress to take action to prevent the scheduled cuts. Read highlights and perspective on the final reg.
- ACEP Council was held Oct 23-24 in Boston. Delaware was represented by Drs. Granitto and Groner. Dr. Powell served as the alternate. Topics of interest included protection of the EM scope of practice, workforce concerns, and emerging ideas such as telemedicine.

State Update

- We continue to monitor for downcoding by insurers especially that based on final diagnosis and that which is automated without a chart review. This has been an issue in other states and has been opposed by physician groups with variable success. Please let us know if you encounter this issue.

- Nursing staffing shortages continue statewide but seem to have stabilized to some degree. Along with an uptick in volume, multiple facilities have noted difficulties with boarding and with delays in facilitating transfers due to lack of available beds.
- COVID has subsided, at least for the time being, but winter is coming.
